Fund for American Art

For over one hundred years, New Britain Museum of American Art trustees, staff, members, donors and volunteers have been steadily building a stellar and comprehensive collection of the nation's artistic output and providing intellectual access to it through a variety of interpretive and educational programming.

With the opening of the new award-winning Chase Family Building and renovation of the Landers House, thanks to contributions from over one thousand donors, the Museum now has a physical plant equal in caliber to its collection.

Enthusiastically embraced by the public, awarded the 2007 Excellence in the Arts award by the State of Connecticut, today the new New Britain Museum of American Art is indeed "Where Art Meets Life." Here at America's first museum dedicated to American Art, our VISION is for the New Britain Museum of American Art to be known as one of America's most welcoming, distinguished, dynamic, and educationally ambitious art museums.

Help us secure that vision: JOIN, GIVE, and VOLUNTEER.

Participating, by joining, giving and volunteering, is very rewarding. Not only do you and our community benefit directly but you are contributing to the advancement of a vibrant and vital museum. Be part of the vision.
