Tired of packed shops, overcrowded malls, and pushy shoppers? Join us at the NBMAA's 3rd Annual Encore Holiday Trunk Show where you can shop for one-of-a-kind artisanal goods without the usual holiday hassles. A culmulation of 2013's trunk show artists and more gather at the Museum on Fri., December 6 from 5:30-8 p.m. and Sat., December 7 from 10:30 a.m.-5 p.m. to display their impressive works of art for sale. With an extensive variety of crafts, shoppers will find purposeful home goods for kitchen and bath, as well as creative décor for the rest of the home. Handmade garments and purses appeal to any fashion sense with a large selection of original accessories to match. Unique, beautiful crafts from local designers are sure to please anyone on your holiday list.

Artistic goods include jewelry by Diane Kopta, Amy Agles of Elizabeth Phillips Jewelry, Sue Gallagher of LaDeDah, Sandy Goodsell and Linda Grippo of Vetri di Colori, Jan Hasenjager of JaLyn, Cheryl Moody, Valerie Peyton Horn, Linda Popper of Nature's Artistry and Cara Stimmel of Fern Street Designs, woodwork by Forrest Doyle of Wood by Forrest, pottery by Charlene Li of Summer Green Pottery, home goods by Jackie Omicioli of Otter Creek Candles & Gifts, and accessories by Kathleen Scranton of Beez by Scranton, Arline Pozzo of Graceful Greetings, Richard Malinsky of Richard Malinsky Expressions.
