Treat your employees to a full year of free admission to the NBMAA. The NBMAA now offers companies of all sizes the opportunity for their employees to visit and partake in the Museum experience. In exchange for a nominal fee, the Corporate Membership enables your staff to visit the Museum free of charge just by showing their company ID. This is a $12 per visit value.

Your company will also receive an introductory package that includes a copy of the Museum's award-winning magazine, Art & Insight, and informational rack cards for you to display. You will also be kept informed by e-blasts, quarterly mailings of our newsletter, exhibition postcards and other materials. We will also provide a link to your website, if you so wish.
