museum of strictly American art in the country. With particular strengths in colonial portraiture, the Hudson River School, American Impressionism, and the Ash Can School, also not to mention the important mural series The Arts of Life in America by Thomas Hart Benton, the Museum relies heavily on its permanent collection for exhibitions and programming, yet also displays a significant number of borrowed shows and works by emerging artists. The singular focus on American art and its panoramic view of American artistic achievement make the New Britain Museum of American Art a significant teaching resource available to the local, regional, and national public.

Availability: Internship availability is dependant upon the needs of Museum departments

Time Commitment: minimum of 12-15 hours/week, full-time optional. May be required for additional special events depending on departmental needs. Internships run for approximately 2-4 months, summer session from the end of May or beginning of June through mid-August.
